Geoffrey Nels Fieger, one of the most successful trial lawyers in the country, joins us today sharing his thoughts about our legal system and on some of today's key legal and political issues. He has published scholarly articles on the law and is constantly in demand as an expert analyst for high profile media trials. His charismatic personality has made him the star of the CBS radio program, "Fiegertime". He appears daily on CNN, Fox, Court T.V. and other networks commenting on various legal issues and cases. In 1998, he was the Democratic Party nominee for Governor of the State of Michigan.

But after two decades of practicing law Geoffrey has become best known most for his real passion in life: winning. He has won more multi-million dollar awards than any other attorney in the country, including his very first trial in 1980. Some of these trials include the defense of Dr. Kevorkian, the Jenny Jones trial, the defense of Nathaniel Abraham and record awards in Michigan, Florida, Pennsylvania and Indiana. Many of these trials have generated national attention and set important legal precedents.

In every case and with every client, Geoffrey devotes himself to getting justice for his clients. He has been characterized by his opponents as extremely well prepared, intimidating, charismatic... and the lawyer they would hire if they needed representation.

Geoffrey is a tireless and fearless worker for his clients. He is described by those closest to him as a caring and intensely loyal friend.

Jay Brandon, on one hand is a successful attorney in San Antonio, Texas, and on the other, a mystery novelist. Each of his novels takes aspects of people, places and happenings in the world of law and adds Jay's own brand of gripping suspense and excellent writing.
